Summary of reasons for decision:

The computer image file depicts a teenage girl naked in the shower. It exploits the nudity of a young person to such a degree that its availability is likely to be injurious to the public good. This classification of objectionable interferes with the right to freedom of expression as per the New Zealand Bill of Rights Act 1990, however the decision is reasonable, justified and in accordance with the law. It is consistent with Parliament's intention that publications which exploit the nudity of young persons in a manner that renders their availability likely to be injurious to the public good, will be banned.
